Privacy Notice

At Shanahan Insurance, we take your personal privacy very seriously and have enacted steps to ensure its protection.

1. We will never sell your personal information to anyone
2. We do not share your information with any third parties that would use it to contact you about their own products and services
3. We require employees protect your personal information and keep it confidential
4. Your personal information is kept in secure, password-protected databases that are accessible only to individuals relevant in writing, updating, or maintain your insurance profile
5. We will never recycle or toss in the trash your sensitive information. Any printed document with sensitive information including date of birth or social security number will be shredded upon completion.

As you can see, protecting your personal information is of paramount importance to us. We are constantly reviewing our policies and practices to keep pace with the ever-evolving digital marketplace and training our employees on the latest measures of protection to safeguard against phishing, hacking, and other means of data intrusion.

If a question or concern about how we handle your personal information should arise, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
The Shanahan Insurance Agency Team
